ACTS OF PRAISE

*CALL TO WORSHIP (enfleshed: liturgy that matters)

ONE: What of the Gospel can heal us? In times of sickness and sorrow,

ALL: what does it mean to be made well?

ONE: Finding ease in the creatureliness of our bodies,

ALL: we live our questions with our lives.

ONE: Treasuring our interdependence,

ALL: we live our questions with our lives.

ONE: Holding both beauty and grief as sacred,

ALL: we live our questions with our lives.

ONE: Let us worship God, who accompanies us in our questions

ALL: and lures us towards collective flourishing.

*OPENING HYMN      Where Charity and Love Prevail, vs. 1, 3, & 6      UMH #549

1. Where charity and love prevail, there God is ever found; brought here together by Christ's love, by love are we thus bound.

6. Love can exclude no race or creed if honored be God's name; our common life embraces all whose Maker is the same.

3. Forgive we now each other's faults
as we our faults confess; and let us love each other well in Christian holiness.

ACTS OF PROCLAMATION

*SCRIPTURE

Luke 24:36-48

While they were still talking about this, Jesus actually stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

In their panic and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. Jesus said to them, “Why are you disturbed? Why do such ideas cross your mind? Look at my hands and my feet; it is I, really. Touch me and see—a ghost doesn’t have flesh and bones as I do.” After saying this, Jesus showed them the wounds.

They were still incredulous for sheer joy and wonder, so Jesus said to them “Do you have anything here to eat?”

After being given a piece of cooked fish, the savior ate in their presence.

Then Jesus said to them, “Remember the words I spoke when I was still with you: everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets, and the psalms had to be fulfilled.”

Then Jesus opened their minds to the understand of the scriptures, saying, “That is why the scriptures say that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead on the third day. In the Messiah’s name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. You are witnesses of all this.

ONE: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

MESSAGE

Better When Shared

*CLOSING HYMN

Help Us Accept Each Other

UMH #560

1. Help us accept each other as Christ accepted us; teach us as sister, brother, each person to embrace. Be present, God, among us, and bring us to believe we are ourselves accepted and meant to love and live.

2. Teach us, O God, your lessons, as in our daily life we struggle to be human and search for hope and faith. Teach us to care for people, for all, not just for some, to love them as we find them, or as they may become.

3. Let your acceptance change us, so that we may be moved in living situations to do the truth in love; to practice your acceptance, until we know by heart the table of forgiveness and laughter’s healing art.

4. God, for today’s encounters with all who are in need, who hunger for acceptance, for righteousness and bread, we need new eyes for seeing, new hands for holding on; renew us with your Spirit; God, free us, make us one!

BENEDICTION & SENDING FORTH

BENEDICTION & SENDING FORTH (enfleshed: liturgy that matters)

Go forth in your tender, temporary body, honoring the echo of the eternal in all beings,
that we might co-create a world of easeful access
and compassionate care

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

Central United Methodist Church acknowledges that the building in which we carry out our collective life together occupies and is built upon land that is part of what was first known as Waawiyaataanong (“At the curved shores.”), the ancestral and contemporary homeland of the Three Fires Confederacy, but which is now referred to as Detroit. In 1807 the Ojibwe, Odawa, Potawatomi, and Wyandot nations granted use of these sovereign lands to the US government through the Treaty of Detroit. Central United Methodist Church affirms the continued Indigenous sovereignty over these lands and honors all tribes with a connection to Detroit. We commit ourselves to working together with our native brothers and sisters to advance equity in all dimensions of life and to promote a better future for the earth and all its peoples.
