Faith Book Club

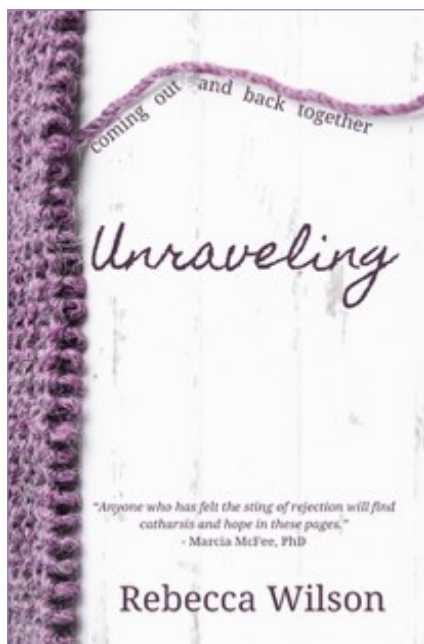

The next meeting of the Faith book Club will be:

Wednesday, May 29th, 12 noon—2:00 p.m.

At the home of Jo-Ann Snyder

1506 Chateaufort Place, Detroit 48207

(Please note the change in place because of the Tiger Game that afternoon)

Our next book is

Unraveling, Coming Out and Back Together
by Rebecca Wilson.

The author will join us to read some of the poems from her book.

In June we will be discussing Medgar and Myrlie by Joy-Ann Reid.

A work of biography that repositions slain Civil Rights pioneer Medgar Evers at the heart of America's struggle for freedom, and celebrates Myrlie Ever's extraordinary activism after her husband's assassination in the driveway of their Mississippi home.

Message from Maggie Reese, Director of Music

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to sing in the choir at Central?

Introducing Choir "Lite"! No singing experience is needed. This is just an opportunity to try something new and, contribute to the life of Central. On the following Sundays - June 30th, July 21st and August 18th, you are invited to join our "pick up choir" to sing one easy anthem during the service. I have selected music that is easily learned and requires only a rehearsal that Sunday morning at 9:45am. You might discover that you really enjoy the experience and want to actually join the choir in the fall!

Hope to see many of you step up and take advantage of this opportunity.
Maggie Reese, Director of Music

Sunday School

Sunday, May 26th is the last day of regular Sunday School for the program year. Beginning on June 2nd, extra activities will be available in the Grace Space, and Deaconess Anne will assist children in participating in worship. Regular Sunday School will resume in September.
