Regular Sunday School for children and youth will be suspended for the months of November and December. Central is moving worship back online to Zoom/Livestream, and covid transmission levels are not yet at low enough rates to hold Sunday School indoors. Instead, plans are in the works for a Saturday outdoor gathering for families of younger children to occur once in November and once in December. Youth Group will still be held at 4:30pm on the third Sundays of the month, November 21 and December 19. More details will be announced soon.

Walking a Labyrinth

Labyrinths are an ancient tool for spiritual growth, prayer, and meditation.

On Saturday, November 20 and
Sunday, November 21 from 1:00-3:30 pm,

Central United Methodist Church will sponsor this course, over ZOOM, an informative, entertaining, and experiential class about labyrinths.

The course will be taught by Karen Knight Price, advanced labyrinth facilitator. The event is free, but you will need to register with Karen at kkprice40@aol.com by November 17. Direct any questions to Karen at this email. Come and be informed and inspired by the possibilities!
