

The Rev. Alex Plum is ordained as a Deacon in The United Methodist Church. He serves at Cass Community UMC as the Deacon for Health Partnerships and works as the Director of Clinical & Social Health Integration at Henry Ford. He is passionate about community health both globally and locally. His ministry connects the church with the world through organizing, advocating, and creating sustainable solutions to improve health by closing gaps in food, transportation, and housing insecurity.