ACTS OF PRAISE

CALL TO WORSHIP (enfleshed: liturgy that matters)

ONE: What of the Gospel can heal us? In times of sickness and sorrow,

ALL: what does it mean to be made well?

ONE: Finding ease in the creatureliness of our bodies,

ALL: we live our questions with our lives.

ONE: Treasuring our interdependence,

ALL: we live our questions with our lives.

ONE: Holding both beauty and grief as sacred,

ALL: we live our questions with our lives.

ONE: Let us worship God, who accompanies us in our questions

ALL: and lures us towards collective flourishing.

OPENING HYMN

Christ Has Risen, vs. 1, 3, & 4

TFWS #2115

1. Christ has risen while earth slumbers, Christ has risen where hope died, as he said and as he promised, as we doubted and denied. Let the moon embrace the blessing; let the sun sustain the cheer;
let the world confirm the rumor;
Christ is risen, God is here!
3. Christ has risen to companion former friends who fear the night, sensing loss and limitation where their faith has once burned bright. They bemoan what is no longer, they expect no hopeful sign till Christ ends their conversation, breaking bread and sharing wine.
4. Christ has risen and forever lives to challenge and to change all whose lives are messed or mangled, all who find religion strange. Christ is risen, Christ is present making us what he has been — evidence of transformation in which God is known and seen.

ACTS OF PROCLAMATION

*SCRIPTURE

Luke 24:36-48

While they were still talking about this, Jesus actually stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

In their panic and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. Jesus said to them, “Why are you disturbed? Why do such ideas cross your mind? Look at my hands and my feet; it is I, really. Touch me and see—a ghost doesn’t have flesh and bones as I do.” After saying this, Jesus showed them the wounds.

They were still incredulous for sheer joy and wonder, so Jesus said to them “Do you have anything here to eat?”

After being given a piece of cooked fish, the savior ate in their presence.

Then Jesus said to them, “Remember the words I spoke when I was still with you: everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets, and the psalms had to be fulfilled.”

Then Jesus opened their minds to the understand of the scriptures, saying, “That is why the scriptures say that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead on the third day. In the Messiah’s name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. You are witnesses of all this.

ONE: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

*CLOSING HYMN

Jesus’ Hands Were Kind Hands

UMH #273

1. Jesus’ hands were kind hands, doing good to all, healing pain and sickness, blessing children small, washing tired feet, and saving those who fall; Jesus’ hands were kind hands, doing good to all.

2. Take my hands, Lord Jesus, let them work for you; make them strong and gentle, kind in all I do. Let me watch you, Jesus, till I’m gentile too, till my hands are kind hands, quick to work for you.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

Central United Methodist Church acknowledges that the building in which we carry out our collective life together occupies and is built upon land that is part of what was first known as Waawiyaataanong (“At the curved shores.”), the ancestral and contemporary homeland of the Three Fires Confederacy, but which is now referred to as Detroit. In 1807 the Ojibwe, Odawa, Potawatomi, and Wyandot nations granted use of these sovereign lands to the US government through the Treaty of Detroit. Central United Methodist Church affirms the continued Indigenous sovereignty over these lands and honors all tribes with a connection to Detroit. We commit ourselves to working together with our native brothers and sisters to advance equity in all dimensions of life and to promote a better future for the earth and all its peoples.
